

THE TULSA STAR
Printing and Publishing Co.

Published Every Friday at 501 North Greenwood Street.

Entered as second-class matter April 11, 1913, at the Post Office at Tulsa, Oklahoma, under the Act of March 3, 1893.

A. J. SMITHERMAN

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Mrs. O. B. Smitherman

Secty Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One year	$1.00
Six Month	.60
Three Month	.30

Have you visited the Exposition grounds?

Altogether, now, for the big Dry Farming Congress.

The mere names of some people spell death to anything with which they are identified.

He is a MAN who acts frankly and honorably with friends and foes. He's an infernal knave who acts otherwise.

It's not how long you've lived in a community and what you have done before going there that counts, but what are you doing for the community NOW?

Next week will be a gala time in Tulsa. If you haven't seen the best town in the state—in the United States—come to Tulsa during the dry-farming congress.

Bill Murray is opposed to Senator Gore retaining his seat in the U. S. Senate. Perhaps Mr. Murray's opposition to Senator Gore is based in the old saying "the blind cannot lead the blind."

The Star stands for public decency and morality. No one can deny that this paper has been of material help to the people of Tulsa and no one would injure themselves by advocating the things we stand for.

A truly honest and honorable man can at all times defend his actions. But a treacherous, tyrannical, hypocritical inscrupulous devil who will do anything—even betray his own race—for personal gain, of course, can not be considered an honorable man.

There is a certain water animal, which when it is about to be caught emits a fluid which colors the water so it can not be seen, and thus makes its escape. The antics of a certain conspicuous class in this city reminds us very much of this animal. Guess who?

The organization of the New Business League was another star chamber "mass meeting." Is it not strange how some people will try to hoodwink the people? It was not necessary to call a business meeting on Sunday and date it back, and this false record should be corrected in a public meeting duly advertised that the people may know what's going on and take part in it if they wish. Let the people rule.

Most men are gallant, forgiving, respectful and considerate in their dealings with women, especially when they stay in a woman's place, but few men have any respect for the typical cunning "she devil" who continually strives to keep up confusion and strife in the community.

The woman who deliberately circulates falsehoods about the neighbors for the purpose of injuring some one she dislikes is a bad citizen.

There are at least one or two such women in Tulsa and the Star will take them under prayerful consideration if they don't change their tactics.

"A Good, True, Brave Man"

The eulogy of Dr. Waterford of Muskogee Monday night on the gentlemanly qualities of Captain Jackson was a gem. It is a pity that Captain Jackson is not better known by all the people of this city. Up then, it is quite natural for truly great and good men to be modest and refrain from notoriety. The fellow who placards himself, who paints billboards, posters, etc., of himself, who constantly seeks publicity is too much of a pedant to be either good or great. It is gratifying to the colored citizens of Tulsa to have the greatness of one of their citizens extolled by an outsider. Captain Jackson is indeed a good man and incidentally a great man.

STREET CLEANING LONG AGO

Franklin's Autobiography Tells How He Promoted the First Contract Job in Philadelphia.

of the Tulsa Star, published weekly at Tulsa, Okla., reprinted by the Act of August 24, 1912:

Editor, A. J. Smitherman,
Managing Editor, A. J. Smitherman,
Business Manager, A. J. Smitherman.

Publisher, A. J. Smitherman, Known bondholders, most Owner, A. J. Smitherman, gaggers and other security holders, holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities: None.
(Signed) A. J. Smitherman.

Swear and subscribe before me this 6th day of October, 1913.

(Seal) H. Augustus Guess,
Notary Public.

(My commission expires Dec.

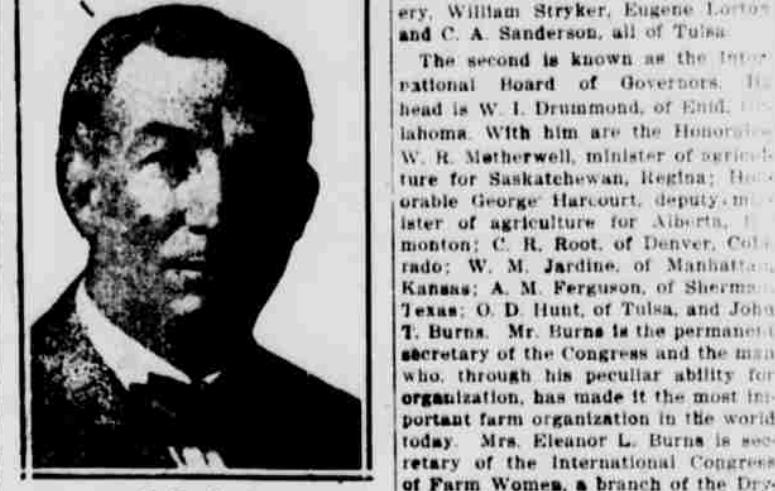

THREE ENTIRE SAMPLE LINES OF THE BEST COAT & SUIT HOUSE IN THE U. S. AT THE HARLOW BROKERAGE MAIN STREET STORE.—ADV.

MEN WHO ARE PUSHING THE BIG TULSA SHOW

No set of men have ever worked harder to make an exposition successful than that behind the International trol is headed by O. D. Hunt, president of the Queen Bee Stove company of Tulsa, and one of the most prominent business men of the city. His associates are L. K. Cone, C. S. Avery, William Stryker, Eugene Lorton and C. A. Sanderson, all of Tulsa.

The second is known as the International Board of Governors. Its head is W. L. Drummond, of Enid, Oklahoma. With him are the Honorable W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan, Regina; Honorable George Harcourt, deputy minister of agriculture for Alberta, Edmonton; C. R. Root, of Denver, Colorado; W. M. Jardine, of Manhattan, Kansas; A. M. Ferguson, of Sherman, Texas; O. D. Hunt, of Tulsa, and John T. Burns. Mr. Burns is the permanent secretary of the Congress and the man who, through his peculiar ability for organization, has made it the most important farm organization in the world today. Mrs. Eleanor L. Burns is secretary of the International Congress of Farm Women, a branch of the Dry Farming Congress, and through it she wields a mighty influence on the lives of tens of thousands of women in many nations.

O. D. Hunt.

Dry-Farming Congress at Tulsa. Two groups of men control its work. One, known as the Oklahoma Board of Con-

Conscientious

An editor of a New York magazine recently received a story of which the scene was laid in the state of Washington. He wished to have the story illustrated and in order to obtain the best local detail he sent the manuscript to a young artist out in Washington. Before doing so however, he scrawled hastily across the top of the first page the address of the writer which did not otherwise appear on the manuscript. It was "Shelton, Wash." With the story the editor sent a letter asking the artist to make a wash drawing of a certain scene and forward it as soon as possible. By return mail the editor received an exciting reply from the young artist, saying "I note that you wish me to use Shelton — I do not know of any such town nor do I know of any dealers on the coast. If you can send me a tube I shall be glad to make the drawing."

What Is Love ?

By William H. Payne

There is not a question of more importance
Either on earth or in heaven above
As the one so often queried and seldom answered—

What is Love?

Love is that which takes possession

Of the human heart and mind,

In regards to tender care and feeling.

Could you a better answer find?

Love is an impending crisis Originated by the Lord for the soul of man.

It breaks into the heart, you can not defy it.

With mysteries you can't understand.

Love is master of human destinies.

If you possess it all ends well.

But, a heart that's never known it,
Or your fate I will not tell.

Love is like a glorious sunbeam,
In this world it plays its part.
It brings either joy or sorrow
To each and every mortal heart.

Love is the creation of braves and patriots.

When you hear the battle cry,
It's because they love their country.

Brave men live to fight or die.

Love is the parent of virtue,
It combines man to the opposite sex.

It is love that gives wit and wisdom.

From love the clergyman his text.

Love is the father and mother of ambition.

The mind is inspired from realms above.

And most every known invention
Is invented by the means of love.

Love gives all the world its' gladness.

'Tis love that gives us our friends.

Love is the cause of our existence.

Love will save us in the end.

curious bits of history

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

HOW KENTUCKY FOUGHT JOHN BULL.

By A. W. MACT.

Sweden, has there been a more exciting battle than that of New Orleans, fought January 1, 1815. So far as numbers were concerned, the advantage was with the British; for they had 12,000 soldiers, while General Jackson had but 2,000. In discipline, too, the British were far superior, for they were well-trained veterans who had seen service on the battlefields of Europe. The American soldiers, on the other hand, were for the most part raw militia, pioneers in coonskin caps and homespun clothing. But in results the one-sidedness was the other way. For three weeks Jackson had been training his raw soldiers, and when the British advanced to the attack they found the Americans strongly entrenched and well prepared to receive them. The slaughter was terrific. The British loss was about 2,600 killed and wounded, while on the American side only eight were killed and thirteen wounded. And the pity of it was, there was no need of the battle, for peace had been declared between the two countries. Among the American soldiers were many from Kentucky, and for years afterward this song was often sung in that state: "Jackson led to the cypress swamp."

The ground was low and mucky;
There stood John Bull in martial pomp,
And here stood old Kentucky.
And when so near we saw them wince,
We thought it time to stop 'em!
Lord! it would have done your heart good
To see Kentucky pop 'em!

Copyright, 1913, by Joseph H. Bowring

TRADERS

If a man holds bags in carload lots and ships them off and does not credit and do not pay him, it stands to REASON, that he can Bill for less than those who do in small amounts and often credit. It costs money to send out statements to get orders and then to keep up books and automobile to deliver goods. We save this expense, as do others, by having on time and in full the amount that we never pay, and let the man have their goods, then we pay the expenses of his ring. We buy for less—our expense, as less—we lose nothing. Our cost and our margin more than stations per day therefore we can sell for less.

We received a copy of Newton's Best Flours, and also a bill from Burlington, Iowa, so we asked them if money can be sent over a car on track now, or we want them to send mill in mobile, we have five cars more freight all to be delivered within the next six weeks. We are retailing the flour for more than some merchants are now asking for wholesale. We generally save 10% to 15% on advertising or selling back.

We sell flour, but the best flour.

20 lbs. flour, 10 lbs. flour, 50 lbs.

10 lbs. flour, 5 lbs. flour, 25 lbs.

1 bushel, 5 bushels, 10 bushels.

100 bushels, 200 bushels, 500 bushels.

Any quantity—any time—any entire year, or any day, or any hour, or any minute, or any second.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our bill of lading.

Our delivery and sale has been good, and we will be surprised to find that our bill of sale will be smaller than our